

1. KLOVE has wonderful, positive, uplifting music and commentary 24/7. It also provides a calendar of up-coming local events; both paid concerts of Christian artists and bands; and free events for the family.
2. This would have an eternally devastating affect those people in the local community (as well as for every other community in the US) for which this may be their only exposure to the wonderful message of Christ and His saving GRACE!
3. The service provided by KLOVE is in the public interest because it provides a family-friendly format of positive music and commentary, which is SAFE for listeners of all ages.
